Outbreak Declared at Saint Michael Catholic High School; Confirmed Case of COVID-19 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Elementary School in Grimsby

Niagara Region Public Health has declared an outbreak of COVID-19 at Saint Michael Catholic High School in Niagara Falls after a connection was made between two cases at the school. An outbreak is defined as two or more confirmed cases that are connected.

Public Health has advised that the outbreak will be declared over on December 28, if there are no further connected cases at the school.

We further advise of a confirmed case of COVID-19 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Elementary School in Grimsby. The individuals involved in this case have been notified and are currently self-isolating.

Niagara Catholic advises all contacts to follow the advice of Niagara Region Public Health.
