Confirmed Case of COVID-19 at St. Philomena Catholic Elementary School

Niagara Catholic has been advised that an individual tested positive for COVID-19 at St. Philomena Catholic Elementary School.

As a result, students and staff at the school was exposed to COVID-19 while the individual was infectious.

The individual is currently in self-isolation. The principal of St. Philomena Catholic Elementary School has sent a letter to all students and staff to notify them.

Staff at St. Philomena are working with Niagara Region Public Health and will comply with all requirements.

Affected individuals will receive a letter from Niagara Region Public Health through the school. Niagara Catholic advises all contacts to follow all recommendations of Niagara Region Public Health.
