Two Niagara Catholic Students Bound for Harvard

Two Niagara Catholic graduating students are joining the Ivy League.

Thomas Mete from Lakeshore Catholic High School, and Ciara Krsul from Notre Dame College School, have each submitted their acceptances to Harvard for September 2022.

Thomas, Student Council President of Lakeshore Catholic High School, has a current average of 99.14 percent. He maintained that exceptional average while still being an active member at the school and in the community, completing nearly 20 times the 20 volunteer hours required for graduation. Thomas plans to major in Government, Economics and Statistics, and minor in History and Literature.

Ciara, who has an average of 95.8 percent, has similarly been very active at Notre Dame while maintaining her impressive grades, participating in the Art Club, Chess Club and Eco Club. Her art was recognized with Best Art Piece in Niagara Catholic's Young Artists Gallery in Grades 9-11, and she has been involved with the Pilgrimage throughout her four years at Notre Dame. Ciara plans to study in Harvard's Department of Cell and Molecular Biology.

"This is an outstanding accomplishment for both Ciara and Thomas," said Niagara Catholic District School Board Director of Education Camillo Cipriano. "Their success is truly a testament to their own hard work and dedication, but also to the commitment of their parents and their teachers who encouraged them to dream big and to work hard to make their dreams come true."
